

William McLoughery, former secretary of the Conservative association at East Grey, is actively supporting reciprocity in that riding.

J. L. Lallier, a life-long Conservative and prominent business man of Wakefield, is favorable to reciprocity, and has so written to the press.

W. L. Wilkins, of Newwood, one of the most influential Conservatives in the riding of East Peterboro, has on many occasions declared himself in favor of reciprocity.

J. S. Woods, vice-president of the Grain Growers' association, a former conservative, is the reciprocity candidate.

CORINTHIANS BEAT CHICAGO BY 10 TO 1

Chicago, Ill. Sept. 12.—Playing like a well-oiled machine the members of the Corinthian soccer team of England, swamped the picked aggregation representing Chicago at Comiskey park tonight, 10 goals to 1. At no stage of the game was the visitors in danger and on the contrary the one goal scored by Chicago came more as a shock than anything else.

LIBERALS FORCING FIGHT ALL OVER THE DOMINION

British Born Reply to Borden's Effort to Stampede Them by Pointing to His Nationalist Connections—Liberals Will Capture Large Number of Seats Held by Conservatives in Ontario—Nationalists Seize in Quebec are Seizing to Laurier—Ontario Farming and Labor Interests Solid For Reciprocity

Toronto, Sept. 11.—Ontario farming and labor interests are lined up in practice for the coming campaign for reciprocity and the Liberal party is a receipt of encouraging returns from many liberal Conservative municipalities. The efforts to stampede the British born with the annexation treaty have won considerable success daily of a substantial vote in the Dominion to Borden to explain the alliance with Bourgeois.

Conservative financing of the Nationalist campaign has been exposed by the proposal of the Ontario anti-reciprocity interests to organize a French-Canadian meeting at Sudbury to be addressed by Bourgeois. He has effectively killed their intentions of today.

In the Maritime provinces Van Horne said that he was "in the hands of the common manager and concerning reciprocity, 'I am out to do it all in one blast the damned thing'."

The character of the campaign waged by the men and men and the interests everywhere in stirring the people to look to their own welfare and liberate grow more assured daily of a substantial vote in the Dominion to Borden to explain the alliance with Bourgeois.

In Ontario the Liberals expect to win for a certain Alliance, Nipissin, North Lanark, North Simcoe, North Essex, Norfolk, Huron, St. George, Lennox and Addington and a dozen other Conservative seats are regarded as probable wins. There are not more than five liberal seats even in danger.

Quebec has swung towards Liberalism with Laurier forcing the fight. The Liberals are no longer on the defense but expect to capture at least four seats held by the Conservatives into parliament. They are Seaboard, Champlain, Drummond and Arthabaska and Quebec West.

Premier at Victoriaville. Mr. Wilfrid Laurier arrived here today to commence his first appeal to the French Canadian voters of the Dominion. Two facts lent peculiar plausibility to the Premier's visit here. Here was the center of the French Canadian Arthabaska by-election in which the Nationalist first.

and strength by the election of Gilbert over the administration candidate, and it was in this district that Sir Wilfrid Laurier passed the greater part of his early days. The Premier evidently took both these facts into consideration for therein he dealt briefly with French Canadian history, concluded in, for the most part a personal appeal and an attack on Henri Bourgeois and his "Liberal" doctrine. The Premier made a long and emphatic speech in support of the Liberalism, the Liberal candidate, calling upon the voters to vote for Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

He reminded the voters that the policy of the Nationalist was to force the election of the Nationalist as the only way to secure the reciprocity he hoped to bring about the administration.

Refutes Falsehoods. Twice he characterized as lies the insinuations of the Nationalists with regard to conservatism and he made the accusations that the Conservative Nationalists were working together to accomplish the election of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He said that Sir H. H. Ames, Conservative candidate in St. Antoine, was supporting Mr. Bourgeois's organ, Le Devoir, from the Cooperative campaign fund. Sir Wilfrid was accompanied by several hundred persons from Montreal, and on his way addressed gatherings from the rural districts to various villages along the route. Five thousand people attended the gathering here. He was accompanied on the platform by Messrs. Levesque and Mitchell and Hon. J. A. B. Macdonald.

The meeting opened with the reading of an address to Mr. Wilfrid Laurier. The Premier rose to speak and was received with applause and cheering from the thousands in the audience. From the start the personal note was prominent. He reminded the voters that he had retained his seat in the local election and his organ, Le Devoir, had stated that he would always remain an elector and citizen of the country. He called upon the voters to vote for Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

He had nothing to say against Mr. Gilbert. He said that he had retained his seat in the local election and his organ, Le Devoir, had stated that he would always remain an elector and citizen of the country. He called upon the voters to vote for Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

SLAVES OR FREE-MEN?

The weapons of tyranny are being swung over the heads of Canadians to-day as they have not been for many years before. Wherever there is, in politics or in business, a man who can be "got at" by the enemies of reciprocity, that man is marked, and the choice put before him of fighting reciprocity or preparing to get down and out.

Six months ago the hesitating Mr. Borden was brought upon the carpet by the Montreal moguls, and was told that for him there were two alternatives, and two only. He must go at reciprocity hammer and tongs or must quit the leadership of the party over which these financial big-wigs have for the time secured control. Mr. Haultain, failing apparently to comprehend the signs of the times, or to correctly measure the punitive power of the party dictators ventured to say that he favored the reciprocity agreement, and to vote that way in the Legislature. But they "got him," and to-day he is recanting his speech of last March with the lame apology that he did not know what he was talking about, and is doing what lies in him to get an opponent of reciprocity elected in Qu'Appelle. Absolute submission to political dictation is the price demanded for the political support of the moneyed interests—and the price paid by the leaders who are receiving that support.

But political intimidation is not the only weapon brought into the fight by those whose privileges are threatened or thought to be threatened by the reciprocity agreement. There is commercial intimidation also. A couple of weeks ago Mr. Moyer, who is running as reciprocity candidate in South Waterloo, was served with notice that he must retire from the candidature or give up his position as manager of an industrial concern. To his credit he sacrificed his job and is fighting for his freedom on the stump.

The dispatches last week brought news of another application of the thumb-screw. The head of the E. B. Eddy Co., of Hull, Quebec, has issued a circular to the branch managers and agents of the company scattered throughout the country, which is worth reading more than once. Here it is:—

"We want every one of you, in the best interests of Canada, of our homes and of our home trade, to do all you can, wherever you can, to help elect members pledged to support the conservation of our national resources, and the protection of our lands and our laborers from being used for the benefit of commercial companies to the south of us. We would like to have your promise in this behalf, and to know that all your help and sympathy is opposed to reciprocity." The circular is signed "E. B. Eddy Co., W. H. Rowley, president."

This, perhaps, is the most impudent assertion of an employer's right to dictate to his employees ever made public in Canada. Put into plain language this missive from his president says to the agent or branch manager of the Eddy Co., wherever he may be: "You fight reciprocity for all you are worth, or your job is gone." And not only is he required to fight reciprocity, but he is required to respond promptly with a promise that he will do so. There are to be no chances taken. The definite promise must go down in black and white and be recorded in the head office at Hull. Then, when the elections are over if it should be found that one of the agents or branch managers has not fought reciprocity, or has not fought it as vigorously as Mr. Rowley thinks he should or might have fought it—the axe is ready for his neck. With these promises from the agents and branch managers securely filed in his office, Mr. Rowley will have a political organization extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, composed of men pledged over their own signatures to be willing and ready to fight the agreement, however and wherever they are told—and over every man of them will hang the threat of his president that if he does not carry out the instructions sent him, and also do whatever seems locally likely to help the cause of the Antis, he must be ready to find another job. The whole business organization of the Eddy Company is to be for the time turned into a political force—if Mr. Rowley can scare the agents and branch managers into line.

These are two instances of intimidation held over the heads of Canadians to compel them to do the political bidding of their employers, under the threat of their living being cut off. But how many are there which have not got into print, and will not be allowed to get to the knowledge of the public? In how many factories has the word been passed—coming none knows whither, but all may guess—that unless the poll at which the employees vote returns a good round majority against the agreement there will be a slaughter in the pay-sheet? And what of the C. P. R., whose president is moaning around the west intimating that he would be tremendously pleased if reciprocity were defeated? Has the whisper gone—as it has gone before—along the lines of that company that unless the conservative candidates are given good majorities in the "railway polls" there will be trouble coming? And how about the milling concerns, and the packing concerns whose chiefs are taking counsel together to crush reciprocity? Is Mr. Rowley worse than these, with whom he is associated; more lacking in a sense of the proprieties; less scrupulous of the rights of man and the decencies of conduct, the one contemptible tyrant in a company of gentlemen? Or are they pretty much of a kidney, and playing the same despicable means to gain the same miserable ends? Which is the more likely?

So, the fight for trade liberty is to be turned into a fight for personal, civil, and political liberty; a fight to determine whether a man in this country shall be free to form his political opinions under the guidance of his own conscience, or whether he shall take them with humble gratitude from the man who pays him wages; a fight to determine whether Canada's policy is to be a race of free-thinking and free-voting men, or dictated by a group of industrial slaveholders to an army of enfranchised menials; a fight to say whether Canada shall be governed in the interests of her people or in the interests of the Rowleys, and whether the men who do the governing shall be chosen by a free people or nominated and placed in office by the lords paramount of the plunkocracy. Are we to be slaves or free men? That is the question.

Mr. Rudyard Kipling has been blithering about Canadian loyalty—or, what amounts to the same thing—about Canada being swallowed up by the United States. Mr. Kipling is neither an economist nor a Canadian. He can speak, therefore, neither of the economic results nor of the national influence of the reciprocity agreement with any more authority than the scores of other Unionist under-strappers who have been putting aspersions upon our intelligence and our attachment to Great Britain. Mr. Kipling has just one qualification for discussing reciprocity—that he has made a fortune out of reciprocity—in literature. And if the loyalty of Mr. Rudyard Kipling has not been undermined by the stream of Yankee dollars that has for years been flowing upon him, what right or license has he to stand up and say that Canadian national sentiment will be improperly affected by the addition of a few cents per bushel to the price of wheat and a few dollars per head to the price of beef steers?

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy says the location of the C. P. R. car shops will not be announced until the first of next month—that is, until after the elections. There are two places in the running—Calgary and Medicine Hat. The opposition parties in both cities will now, no doubt, raise the slogan, "Vote against reciprocity and get the car-shops." Sir Thomas' move is not an attempt to bribe the electors. It is only an attempt to make the electors think they can bribe the C. P. R. by voting for its solicitor in Calgary and for Mr. Magrath in Medicine Hat. The location of the shops has, of course, been decided, and the outcome of the election has nothing to do with it. The C. P. R. is not being bribed. The shops will go where they have been already set down on the map, let the elections go as they may.

The Ottawa Citizen argues that as Canadians have got on for forty years without reciprocity, reciprocity must be an un-

RECIPE TRADE AND TARIFFS.
Toronto Globe—A recent issue advanced against the simultaneous removal of tariff on natural products is that larger quantities of these goods are now shipped from the United States to the United States. The argument of the tariff on natural products is that the removal of obstruction to the free trade in these goods would result in a loss of revenue to the government.

desirable thing. By the same line of reasoning, it might be established that as the aborigines of Canada got along for several times forty years without pants, the learned economist of the Citizen might toddle down to work some warm morning without these appendages of civilization.

Mr. Van Wart has characterized as a falsehood the story that he was about to retire from the running in Calgary. The denial was hardly necessary. The story was concocted by the Calgary Herald-Edmonton Journal outfit, and the days when people—Liberals or Conservatives—believed what that gang put into circulation concerning political matters are gone.

A vote for Borden is a vote for Bourassa.

Reciprocity or restriction?

NOT SELLING HAY.
Toronto Globe—There is a good deal of hay in the hands of the stockholders of Ontario. A dealer in Ontario county recently offered to buy it at the market price, adding that if he could not get it he would be prepared to pay as good as any other person buying in the district under the new conditions. The farmers of Ontario have so much faith in the adoption of reciprocity, despite their own devotion to the Tariff, that there is nearly half a million tons of hay in the hands of the stockholders of Ontario.

MEN AND WOMEN
BY "FRUIT-A-TIVES," THE GREAT FRUIT MEDICINE

Many people realize the enormous amount of good which "Fruit-a-tives" has done and are now turning to it for relief. It is a powerful medicine for all ailments of the stomach and bowels, and is especially useful in cases of indigestion, constipation, and general debility. It is a pure fruit medicine, and is therefore safe for all ages and conditions.

OBSERVATIONS.
Lethbridge Herald: R. B. Bennett, of Calgary; J. A. McKay, in Brandon; and J. A. McKay, in Prince Albert, are all C.P.R. candidates, and "conservative" candidates. As they took the reciprocity issue, they are not only true, but they are also true.

Montreal Herald: It is inspiring to see Mr. Mackenzie Bowell continue to stand for the free trade policy of Imperialism. Mr. Mackenzie Bowell is a man of great ability, and is a man of great ability. He is a man of great ability, and is a man of great ability.

Lethbridge Herald: Between $5,000 and $7,000 is what John W. Bradshaw, Lethbridge, estimates he is short by preparing to go of the American live stock market by the tariff. He is short by preparing to go of the American live stock market by the tariff.

Mr. Bradshaw was a supporter of reciprocity, and is a man of great ability. He is a man of great ability, and is a man of great ability.

Oliver J. Wilson, Conservative member for the House of Commons, is a man of great ability. He is a man of great ability, and is a man of great ability.

"I believe that it is unfair that I, as a representative farmer in the raising of North American growing hay and horses and cattle, must pay a higher price for my products than the American farmer who is selling his products into the United States than the American farmer who is selling his products into the United States."

14 Drowned in Wreck of Schooner.
New York, Sept. 11.—Fourteen men were drowned in the sinking of the schooner Whiting of the Niagara coast yesterday, according to cables received from Port Edward. The schooner, owned by Captain Winston Hall, had been carrying a cargo of mahogany, which caught fire and exploded, causing the vessel to sink.

St. George's Win Charity Shield, Defeat Swifts 2-0

Big Surprise Package Handed Out at Diamond, Park Last Night—Saints Won on Their Merits—Swifts Were Decidedly Over-Confident

The surprise package of the soccer football diamond at St. George's Park last night was the victory of the St. George's team over the Swifts, in the final game of the Charity Shield by a score of 2 to 0.

To say the result was a surprise is putting it mildly. The spectators were disappointed and nobody was more surprised than the Swifts themselves, who in addition to winning the shield, had a handsome gold medal as well. But don't imagine for a minute, gentle reader, that the Swifts were really surprised. They were not. They had won the Charity Shield many times before and they were not at all surprised when they won it again last night.

Even the fact that St. George's had lost to the Swifts in the first game of the Charity Shield was not a surprise to them. They were not at all surprised when they lost to the Swifts in the first game of the Charity Shield. They were not at all surprised when they lost to the Swifts in the first game of the Charity Shield. They were not at all surprised when they lost to the Swifts in the first game of the Charity Shield.

Tenby-Two Champions Arrested

Winning, Sept. 11.—Twenty-two champions were arrested here on a bench of a road near the city market, claiming to be the winners of a prize of £1000. A dozen police officers had been posted to the bench to catch the winners of the prize. The winners of the prize were arrested on the bench. The winners of the prize were arrested on the bench.
